

Important Rules Changes and Reminders for 2010

The following rule changes will be enforced/implemented for the 2010 Brazos County Youth Livestock Show.

1. Academically ineligible exhibitor's animals MAY NOT show in the 2010 Brazos County Youth Livestock Show. Additionally, exhibitors who have an extra-curricular activity conflict during the time that their animal is to be shown or sold may request to have a substitute exhibitor provided proper documentation is provided BEFORE THE SHOW. Please see Rule Number 10 in the General Rules and Regulations section for a more detailed explanation concerning substitute exhibitor guidelines.
2. For the market steer and goat shows, a percentage per class will be used to determine sale lots.
3. Barrows MUST weigh at least 230 pounds and not more than 275 pounds at the time that weigh cards are due.
4. An applicant for the BCYLA scholarship must be a member of BCYLA, 4-H or FFA. She/he must be an active exhibitor in the BCYLS their junior and senior year in High School.
5. BCYLS Agricultural Mechanics Project Show Maximum Entries: Each exhibitor may enter up to five individual or up to five group projects or a combination of up to five individual and group projects. No exhibitor may enter more than five projects either group and/or individually constructed.
6. BCYLS Queen Contest Eligibility: The contestant must be a freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior and a member of 4-H or FFA and BCYLA. They must have been an exhibitor in the Brazos County Youth Livestock Show the previous year and a current exhibitor in the Brazos County Youth Livestock Show.
7. The Grand Champion and Reserve Champion Baked Goods and Canned Goods will be sold at the auction. In addition, the Champion from each of the other 6 Divisions (Clothing, Arts & Crafts, Woodworking, Metalworking, Ornamental Horticulture, and Photography) will be sold at the auction. The two Baked Goods must be freshly baked the day of the auction.
8. Market Barrows, Market Lambs & Goats, Market Steers, and Market Rabbits will arrive on Friday, March 26 according to the 2010 Daily Show Schedule.
9. Heifer Show has been instated for 2010 show.
10. Rabbits: One exhibitor may enter two (2) pens of market rabbits.